ALUMNI SPEAK

In my life, so far at least, I have always sought inspiration from two entities that are albeit poles apart but have galvanized rather beautifully each time to help me make sense of the world I live in. One is obviously the eccentric world of books. From analyzing and delving into the intricate complexities of the characters, the multitude of perspectives authors serve on a silver platter to us, enveloped between the scintillating pages of their books, to being transformed into a new self at the end of each book, The other source of my inspiration, something rather tangible, is made of flesh and bone- the people I' ve met throughout my life, people that are full of love, a kind that that has continually exhibited itself through various semblances- through the guidance and mentorship I' ve received from my teachers, the bittersweet friendships I've had and grown through over the years, and through every single individual who chose to believe in me. A fundamental part of this inspiration has been a result of the 13 years I spent at N K Bagrodia Public School, Sec-4 Dwarka, amidst the beautiful red-beige walls with the classrooms harbouring the faint protests of the heart, the ideals, and aspirations of every student it has given the sanctuary of knowledge to. I extend my humble gratitude to all my teachers who moulded me into who I am today . I used to think graduating from school would be an easy deliverance, but now that it's been almost 5 years since I' ve made this tryst with adulthood and a life outside NKBPS, I must also take the pleasure to express my unending gratitude to my then Principal mam Dr. Rajee N Kumar for her erudition, for always being the effulgent beacon of hope, and guidance for us all, for imbuing the virtues of "Anushasan Shram Atmabal" in us- a motto that continues to define the foundation and pedigree of our school. Looking back and weaving this transformational rite-of-passage into sentences is indeed wonderful. As our school completes its 23 years of glory, I am proud to have been a part of its history, and I hope to give something back to it as I, too, progress forward in my journey.

- Vidushi Sinha (Head Girl, 2021 class XII batch)

"All children start their school careers with sparkling imaginations, fertile minds, and a willingness to take risks with what they think." - Keb Robinson

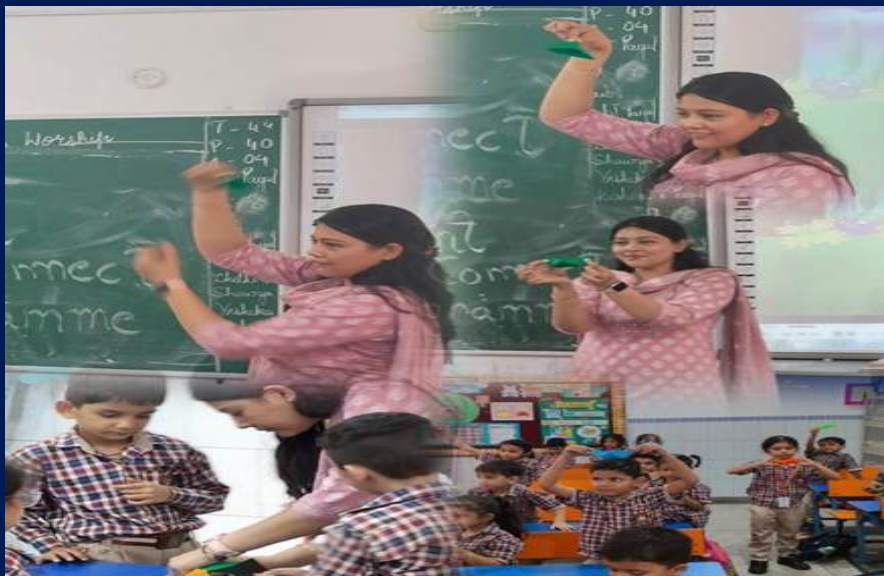

I too embarked on my journey as a toddler at N.K. Bagrodia Public School, sector-4, Dwarka. It had been on a long voyage of learning and self- discovering for 13 years from 2007-2020. With pride, I can say that the school has played a pivotal role in helping me evolve into what I am today. All my teachers, from pre- primary to higher secondary, had been instrumental in grooming me , both academically, and in co-curricular activities. The belief and motivation of my teachers and friends helped me to develop my confidence and ambition to make everyone proud. My experience at my school has been the most memorable so far, as it has helped me to realise my passion, and remain humble and taught us the value of the school motto: anushasan (discipline), shram (hard work) and atmabal (self-confidence). These values have helped me work hard for my dreams, but not worry about the results, as hard work always pays off. One of the best things of this school is that, even after passage out after 12th , we are still in touch with our alma mater. I hope to give a valuable service to society, and wish success and happiness for all my juniors, to believe in themselves and keep inspiring.

- Saima Urooj (Pursuing MBBS, Lady Hardinge Medical College, Delhi)

PARENT CONNECT PROGRAMME

“Connection is a child's deepest need and a parent's highest influence and connecting home and school makes us a community of great learners”

Academic research has proved that a positive relationship between the triangle of parents, teachers and the school has shown to improve the children's academic achievement, social competencies, and emotional well-being. We, at School, recognize the valuable partnership between the school and the parents and plan a wide range of programs throughout each academic session to strengthen this relationship and to foster a stronger connection between parents and their children's educational experience. Keeping up with this omen, “Parent connect programme” is being organized in primary classes at school wherein the parents of the students engaged in some enlightening, fervent, and joyful activities, each sharing their insights and expertise on various topics such as a peppy poem on the rain, demonstration of phases of the moon etc.

Inspiring Creations

“To be inspired is great, to inspire is incredible.”

Colours are the part and parcel of human life. They express every emotion regardless of any constraints or boundaries. They flow eternally in nature and inspire the man. Innumerable shades possessed by a rainbow portray invincible desires to grow, evolve and be better. With this inspiration, the young creative minds have dipped their quills in amazing shades and expressed their feelings which echo the music of life filled with happiness, enthusiasm and celebrations. We hope this creative endeavour will be appreciated by the readers.

Colours bring joy

Colours are bright, a joyful sight,
Red and yellow, pure delight.
Blue like skies, green like trees,
Each one dances in the breeze.

Pink and purple, soft and sweet,
Every shade makes life complete.
Together they create a song,
Bringing joy to everyone.

Amazing Hues!

Colours, colour you are my life.
Without you the world would be lonely, black, and white.
When you come
the happiness also arrives,
And you make me feel better.
You are above and beyond the world.

Shades of Happiness

Did you know how happiness acts as medicine for our body? Happiness boosts our immune system and reduces the chances of getting sick. It also helps maintain a good heart rate and blood pressure, which reduces stress and brings numerous other benefits. Joy, pleasure, satisfaction, excitement, contentment, gratitude and optimism are like the seven shades of happiness. But what does happiness mean? It's the feeling of truly enjoying life and the desire to make the best out of it. Common barriers to happiness can include mental and physical health issues, trauma, or the loss of a loved one. However, the strategy to stay happy even after these challenges is to meditate and face problems with a smile.

Colours play a big role in our daily lives.

Just look around and we see colours everywhere

the blue sky, lush green plants, colourful birds and amazing flowers.

We can identify things based on colours.

Colours splash joy in our festivals like we make rangolis with colors on Diwali and play with colours on Holi.

Life would have been so dull and meaningless without colours.

I love you COLOURS!!!

Do stay with me forever!!

The Journey to Divinity

The cruel world has its own way to take and we have a day to live.
I wonder if my thoughts matter. I'm homesick for a place which I'm not if it exists.
A place where my thoughts are praised and my presence is loved.
Now the sight of mine has given death a sign.
A ray of light came to pick me up and the next second I was bright light floating,
As I looked down I see the cruel world filled with lies and darkness,
With the hopes they were like dope, even the Sun sung the song of hope.

AADYA SAINGAL (VIII E)

Shades of Happiness

In the garden where laughter plays,
Shadows dance in the golden rays.
Whispers of joy, soft and sweet,
In every heartbeat, life's retreat.
Sun-kissed smiles, a gentle breeze,
Happiness blooms among the trees.
In every shade, a movement's
grace,
A canvas of joy, a warm embrace.

Joyful Colours

Colours bring light into our lives,
They are beautiful like butterflies.
Light red, yellow, green and white
Each colour shines, so pure and bright.
My favourite colour - Neon is so light,
It glows so bright, just like the night.
Did you know the rainbow shows
Seven colours as it glows.
Red, orange, yellow, green and blue
Indigo and violet too.
But, let me tell you the truth
Colours bring joy to you and me.

Shades of Happiness

Shades of happiness are not just colours,
They're emotions that reside inside you.
And if you remove their invisible covers,
You can't imagine what it could do to you!
But the best emotion is of happiness,
Just because it lets you free
And it has no permanent address.
It can go wherever it feels.
So, you should not wait for it impatiently at your door,
As it will come at the most unexpected time,
And will surprise you even more.
So the shades of happiness are not just colours,
They are emotions that reside inside you.
And it is so magical, it will definitely delight you.

Life's Colourful Journey

Life is like a tapestry,
With shades of all colours.
We use bright colours of joy and fun,
With laughter, love and play in the Sun.

Sometimes, we add shades of sadness too,
But, we also find hope shining through.
We mix the colours bold and bright,
Creating a picture of our life's light.

Through sunny days and warm nights,
We face our troubles and face new heights.
So let's paint our life with love and care,
With colours that shine and are rare.

Life's Palette

Life's a garden, wild and free,
Blooming bright with mystery.
In shades of joy, in shades of pain,
We learn to dance with the rain.

Each blend reveals a brand - new hue
A painted world, fresh and true,
With wonder wide and heart so bright,
We find our way in the darkest night.

In every leaf, a story spins,
The journey waits where life begins.
Each colour sings a song, so bright,
A journey made in perfect light
Red for passion, green for peace
A blue sky never cease,

Yellow bursts with endless cheer,
While violet whispers the dreams we hear.
Each moment of life in night,
Is like a spark of light,
In every star, a lesson glows,
The Universe in us, it grows.

Shades of Happiness

Shades of happiness,
Help us display our goodness.
Some beautiful moments in life
Are not as simple as flying a kite.
We must enjoy our happy days,
For we've earned them in so many ways.
Though time may pass,
In moments, joy will always last.
We should create them,
We should embrace them.
We shall not waste them,
For it's our happy time.
Shades of happiness,
Teach us humanity.
It's a joyful time,
So, let's celebrate,
Together like a party time.

Green is the lush of life in every leaf,
In the sun's warm cuddle

In purple, I find my sweet face,
My sweet home where my heart will ever stay.
Yellow is the sunshine on my cute face,
It brightens my day making my world a happy place.

Colours dance in the morning Light,
A symphony of hues so bright.
From Crimson red to sapphire blue each shade whispers, "Life is now".
Golden yellows warn the sky, Emerald greens where dreams live.,
Lavender fields in sunset that paints the world as soft winds blow,
In every hue, a story sings, of hope of love and wondrous things.
They fill the heart, they lift the soul, colours make us truly whole.
With every brush, they mend the world from stone to home,
For in their warmth we all rejoice, colours bring joy in a silent voice.

Radiant positive vibes through colours

Radiate positive vibes through color's glow,

Let every shade help joy to grow,

In yellow beams, like morning sun,

Send warmth and light to everyone.

With blue so calm, like skies serene,

Create a peace that is felt, unseen,

A gentle breeze, a soothing tide,

That brings the heart to rest inside.

In orange hues, let passion shine,

A spark of life, a zest divine,

Infuse each moment, bright and bold,

With energy that can't grow old.

Then sprinkle green, a sign of hope,

A vibrant thread to help us cope,

Reminding all that life renews,

With every step, fresh paths to choose.

And in soft pinks, let kindness show,

A tender love that helps us grow,

Radiate out, in every smile,

A color that makes life worthwhile.

So send your colors far and wide,

Let every shade your soul provide,

A rainbow cast through all you do,

To spread good vibes and brighten too.

THE UNFORGETTABLE SONG

A song so strong that makes the warrior cry,

Sings a Reaper in her melancholic cry

Stand still in the valley of flowers,

A Reaper cutting crop and dozens of hearts

A song so strong that makes the warrior cry,

sings a Reaper in her melancholic cry

Like a storm hit the shore

The melody of her voice hit my soul

took away all the ability of our trip

And welcome us like tourists.

No nightingale or an cuckoo bird could,

Welcome the tired like such.

A song so strong that makes the warrior cry,

Sings a Reaper in her melancholic cry

The immense pain in her heart,

I wish gets vanished like the past.

In the field of crop and the field of pain stands a reaper in the middle of vain.

Through the valleys and mountains so high,

Echoed her melodious voice.

A song so strong that makes the warrior cry,

sings a reaper in her melancholic cry.

A Question of Euphoria

Life is reservoir of shades of emotions and life may have different sentiments. But it may not be identical for everybody, for some may handle their life flawlessly yet, others get stuck into it. But what's the point of being stressful and unhappy in your life when you don't need any reason for smiling. Just be glad that you possess so much of facilities moreover live your life with buoyant nature. Be a carefree spirit and create your own album of happy moments. Fill yourself with bright colors like that of a butterfly. The concept of being happy is lucid, just sparkle and portrait yourself into a happy creature like a discharged bird with euphoria.

Colours of Life

In the spectrum of life, so beautiful and bright,
Colors of life beam in the ray of light,
Happiness shines like the brightest hue,
In shades of pink, in skies of blue.
Yellow is laughter, warm and bright,
Orange is passion and feels just right,
Green is in the field, so wide
Red is the love that we hold inside.
But among these all, there is grey, a faint tone ,
For the times in this world when we feel alone,
Yet in this darkness, the happiness will rise ,
Painting rainbows across the skies.
Through ups and downs, the shades we see,
They are the part of life harmony,
Embrace every color, both light and dark,
Afterall life is a walk in the park.

MANYA PRIYA (IX C)

Colour Your Life

Life is indeed a colorful journey, one that enables us to go through various emotions, experiences, and challenges that, in turn, help us grow. The innocence of a person as a child evolves into the mindfulness of adulthood; every stage of this journey is unique and has its own charm. As portrayed by Shakespeare in his poem "The Seven Ages," he regards the journey of life and divides it into seven stages, each special and different from the others, with different goals, responsibilities, and perspectives.

In life, we often wait for big events to happen so, that we can finally be happy. But we miss out on the little things that truly bring us joy and teach us about the real experiences and emotions of life. As we navigate through this colorful and beautiful journey, we often aim high and look forward to achieving our goals, But, we forget that the process of achieving those goals is as important as the goals themselves. Hence the results should be celebrated, but so should the journey to reach them be.

From birth's tender pastel hue,
To youth bold strokes, both bright and true.
Adulthood's rich tapestry unfolds,
With experiences, stories untold,
Love's warm shades, laughter's gleam,
Tears' soft whispers, dreams' vibrant beam.

Time's palette, ever - changing hue,
Seasons blooming, memories anew,
Sorrow's darkness, wisdom's gray,
Sunset's glow, a new found day.
Life's spectrum, a masterpiece divine,
Celebrate each color on every line,
For instance beauty, we find our own,
A rainbow's journey, forever grown.

The Cycle of Life

White sun spectrum rises with dawn,
Parents become happy when their child is born.

If they study and work hard like labors,
They will pass exam with flying colors.

If they fail, they get in tears,
Shadow falls with darkness and fears.

Their peak life, with lines of time,
They have colors of joy, at every rhyme.

They look back on their life's colorful ride,
Their lives start changing, side by side.

They regret and joy with every moment,
But, they continue their life with fiery red element.

Fiery red element is that anger,
Which they get, when their child call them stranger.

They get kicked with broken bones and skin pale,
That's so rude, so unethical, hopefully they go to jail.

At night, like the sun sets in depth,
Rumor spreads about the white haired guy,
who has stopped his breath.

Legends say those gods will incarnate,
They will born again and will dominate.

Experience Life's Palette

Life is a canvas painted with vibrant colors and endless shades. Happiness appears in bright yellows of laughter, soft pinks of love, and golden hues of cherished memories, while deeper shades like calm greens of peace and rich purples of growth add texture. Even, the darker tones—muted greys of reflection or deep blues of sorrow—are essential. They provide contrast, allowing the bright, joyful moments to shine even more vividly. Just as an artist layers color, life's emotions blend and overlap, creating a rich and dynamic masterpiece. Each day adds a new brushstroke, from fiery reds of passion to the pastel blues of quiet contentment. Embrace every shade and hue; together, they create the ever-evolving artwork of your life's journey, reminding us that it's the diversity of experiences that makes life so colorful and beautiful.

Embracing Colourful Life

In the morning light, where the sun is bright,
There's a dance of happiness in the general sight.
A soft breeze that carries laughter and joy,
Painting the world and coloring the void.
Like a child's giggle and a fleeting glance
There are moments of magic in life's sweet dance.
In the simplest things, like rustling of leaves,
Happiness blooms where your heart believes.
Like a warm cup shared on a rainy day,
Happiness spreads through the words you say,
"You are enough," with a comforting touch,
In these small things, people find so much.
So let us spread all the joys that we find,
With the spirits of the people that need some light.
For happiness lives in our heart's embrace,
A treasure unmeasured, a timeless grace.

Paint Your Own Canvas

Life is a delicate masterpiece, painted with the colors of our choices, the strokes of our experiences, and the hues of every emotion we feel. It is an ephemeral journey that we have the right to make or break. Each day provides an opportunity to add new colors to our personal artwork, whether bold and adventurous or soft and peaceful. From the gentle pastels of quiet contentment to the bold, vibrant reds of excitement and passion, each day offers a new color. Myriad elements like mistakes, happiness, habits and memories make our painting unique. Some days we paint the canvas of our life boldly while in others, we go mellow and work softly. The canvas of one's life portrays his/her emotions and feelings. Each artwork has a beauty of its own, an alacrity of its own. On rainy days, even a splash of bright colours is enough to brighten the ambience. Every experience adds a new shade to our canvas, and it's the combination of these hues that reminds us life is a beautiful, colorful spectrum of joy. It is time we start recording our life and tell our tales through timeless art.

मेरी दुनिया

एक छोटे गाँव में चार बच्चों का एक समूह रहता था। ये सभी सबसे अच्छे दोस्त थे और अपने चारों ओर की दुनिया के रहस्यों और सुंदरता को जानने के लिए हमेशा उत्सुक रहते थे। एक दिन उन्होंने निर्णय लिया कि वे रंगों की सुंदरता का पता लगाने के लिए एक जादुई यात्रा पर निकलेंगे। उनकी इस अद्भुत यात्रा की शुरुआत एक जादुई जंगल से हुई, जहाँ हर चीज़ ग्लो-स्केल पर थी। वहाँ पेड़, फूल, और घास सब कुछ बेरंग और नीरस था। बच्चों ने इससे पहले ऐसा कोई जंगल नहीं देखा था, और वे थोड़े हैरान और डर गए। तभी अचानक एक छोटी सी लाल चिड़िया, जो जंगल के एक पेड़ पर बैठी थी, उनके सामने आकर उतरी। उसकी आँखों में एक अद्भुत चमक थी, और जैसे ही उसने अपनी मीठी आवाज़ में चहकना शुरू किया, जंगल में धीरे-धीरे रंग भरने लगे। उस चिड़िया की चहचहाहट न केवल उस वातावरण में रौनक लाई, बल्कि बच्चों के दिलों में भी एक नई खुशी जगा दी।

रामेश्वरम से जुड़ा संस्मरण

रामेश्वरम केवल तीर्थ स्थल नहीं है बल्कि जीवन के अद्भुत रंगों को समझने का माध्यम है। जब मैं रामेश्वरम पहुँचा। तब मैं केवल तीर्थ यात्रा के विचार में था, परंतु वहाँ पर बिताए क्षणों ने मुझे जीवन के बदलते रंगों का अनुभव करवाया। समुद्र की शांति और मंदिरों की दिव्यता ने केवल भक्ति ही नहीं बल्कि जीवन में संतुलन का अनुभव करवाया। रामेश्वरम के तट पर खड़े होकर जब लहरे पैरों को छूती हैं तो यह अनुभव होता है कि जीवन में इन्हीं लहरों की तरह उतार-चढ़ाव आते रहते हैं, कभी हम खुश होते हैं, तो कभी दुखी, परंतु सबसे आवश्यक यह है कि हम इन परिस्थितियों में धैर्य बनाए रखें और विवेक से काम लें। रामनाथा स्वामी मंदिर की गलियों में कई साधारण लोगों से मिला, जिनसे मैंने यह सीखा कि बात करने के लिए केवल भाषा ही ज़रूरी नहीं है, भाव से भी विचार व्यक्त किये जा सकते हैं। रामेश्वरम की संस्कृति और कहानियों में कर्म, प्रेम और त्याग के रंग बसे हैं। वहाँ से लौटते समय मैंने जीवन का सबसे मूल्यवान सबक सीखा कि जीवन के प्रत्येक रंग को दिल से स्वीकारना चाहिए।

जीवन के अद्भुत रंग

एक छोटे-से गाँव में एक चित्रकार रहता था। उसकी झोंपड़ी साधारण मिट्टी से बनी थी, परंतु उसके बनाए चित्रों ने उस छोटे से घर को अद्भुत सुंदरता प्रदान कर रखी थी। समय के साथ, वह चित्रकार बूढ़ा होने लगा, और उसकी चित्रकारी में पहले जैसी बात नहीं रही। धीरे-धीरे उसके बनाए चित्रों के रंग भी फीके पड़ने लगे और उसका घर भी उदास-सा दिखने लगा। एक दिन मीरा नाम की एक लड़की अपने घर को सजाने के लिए रंगीन चित्र बनवाने उस चित्रकार के पास पहुँची। जब वह उसकी कला की तारीफ कर रही थी, उसने देखा कि चित्रकार का चेहरा उदास है। मीरा ने स्नेहपूर्वक पूछा, "आप इतने दुखी क्यों हैं?" चित्रकार ने भारी मन से उत्तर दिया, "अब मैं बूढ़ा हो गया हूँ। मेरे जीवन के रंग खत्म हो गए हैं। अब मुझमें पहले जैसी शक्ति नहीं रही।" यह सुनकर मीरा मुस्कुराई और बोली, "जीवन के रंग कभी खत्म नहीं होते। बस हमें उन्हें महसूस करने का नजरिया चाहिए।" इसके बाद, मीरा हर दिन उस चित्रकार को प्रकृति की सुंदरता और उसके रंग दिखाने लगी। वह उसे बताती, "देखिए, जीवन में ऐसे ही रंग भरे जा सकते हैं। जब तक हम इन रंगों को महसूस नहीं करेंगे, वे हमें दिखाई नहीं देंगे। जीवन को रंगीन बनाने के लिए सही सोच और सच्चा नजरिया होना ज़रूरी है।" मीरा की बातें सुनकर चित्रकार का खोया हुआ आत्मविश्वास फिर से लौट आया। उसे महसूस हुआ कि जीवन में हर दिन नए रंग हैं, बस उन्हें देखने और सराहने की नजर चाहिए।

मेरे जीवन का हर रंग एक कहानी है
जो मेरे अनुभवों और भावनाओं को दर्शाती है।

कभी - कभी ये रंग उज्ज्वल होते हैं

दुख और निराशा से घिरे,

लेकिन इन सभी रंगों ने मिलकर ,

मेरी कहानी को बुन दिया है।

बचपन के रंग हरे थे

खेलने कूदने की खुशी से भरे थे

समय किशोरावस्था में रंग नीले हो गए

अनुभवों और चुनौतियों से भरे

युवावस्था में रंग लाल हो गए

प्यार और जूनून से भरे

अब व्यस्कता में रंग सुनहरे हो गए

ज्ञान और अनुभव से भरे

हर रंग का अपना महत्व है

जैसे हर कहानी का अपना सन्देश

इन रंगों को साथ बुनकर

मैंने अपने जीवन की कहानी लिखी है

जो की अनूठी और बहुत प्यारी है ।

हिंदी पखवाड़े का भव्य आयोजन

स्थान: एन. के. बागड़ोदिया पब्लिक स्कूल, द्वारका, सेक्टर- 4

तिथि: 1 सितंबर, 2024 से 17 सितंबर, 2024 तक

प्रतिष्ठित विद्यालय एन. के. बागडोदिया पब्लिक स्कूल, द्वारका के परिसर में 1 से 17 सितंबर, 2024 तक हिंदी पखवाड़े का भव्य आयोजन हुआ। इस अवसर पर विद्यार्थियों ने अपनी मनमोहक प्रस्तुतियों के माध्यम से हिंदी भाषा की गरिमा और उसके महत्त्व को प्रभावशाली ढंग से व्यक्त किया। इसके अंतर्गत प्रार्थना सभा में सरस्वती वंदना , समाचार-वाचन , सुविचार एवं प्रेरक प्रसंग विद्यालय के छात्रों द्वारा हिंदी में प्रस्तुत किए गए। कार्यक्रम का प्रमुख आकर्षण कविता व कहानी वाचन रहा। कक्षा पहली से दसवीं तक के छात्रों ने कवि सम्मेलन के अंतर्गत हिंदी में स्वरचित कविताएँ प्रस्तुत कीं। कविताओं में देशप्रेम, भाषा के गौरव ,हिंदी के महत्त्व के साथ नारी के अधिकारों व उसकी अस्मिता को भावपूर्ण तरीके से अभिव्यक्त किया गया। विद्यार्थियों द्वारा प्रस्तुत स्वरचित काव्य - पाठ उनकी हिंदी के प्रति रूचि को प्रदर्शित करता है। इन कविताओं के माध्यम से हमारे किशोर छात्रों ने श्रोताओं को यह सोचने पर विवश किया कि हिंदी मात्र एक भाषा नहीं, बल्कि हमारी सांस्कृतिक धरोहर और संस्कारों का अभिन्न अंग है। हिंदी पखवाड़े का समापन प्रधानाचार्या सुश्री अंजलि खरबंदा जी व हिंदी विभागाध्यक्षा श्रीमती मंजू गुप्ता जी के प्रयासों से प्रेरित होकर प्राकृतिक संसाधन एवं प्रशिक्षण केंद्र (CCRT) में डॉ० श्रीमती कीर्ति काले (कवयित्री) के संयोजन से कवि सम्मेलन का आयोजन किया गया। जिसमें अध्यक्ष श्री विनोद नारायण इंदूरकर जी व मुख्य अतिथि श्री जगदीश मिश्र जी ने विद्यालय के ग्यारह छात्रों को पुरस्कृत किया व स्वरचित काव्य - पाठ का कवि मंच से आनंद लिया। छात्रों का उत्साह देखते ही बनता था। सभी ने करतल ध्वनि से इन्हें प्रोत्साहित किया। इसके साथ ही हिंदी पखवाड़े का समापन हर्षोल्लास के साथ किया गया।

La langue française, souvent appelée la langue de Molière, occupe une place privilégiée dans le paysage linguistique mondial. Avec plus de 300 millions de locuteurs répartis sur les cinq continents, le français est l'une des langues les plus parlées et enseignées à travers le monde. Le français est la langue officielle de 29 pays et est également utilisée dans les grandes organisations internationales comme les Nations Unies, l'Union Européenne et l'Union Africaine. Cette présence internationale fait du français une langue incontournable pour les échanges diplomatiques et commerciaux. Les couleurs, quant à elles, influencent également la vie des élèves. Elles peuvent avoir un effet direct sur leur concentration, leur humeur et leur performance. Par exemple, des études montrent que des environnements d'apprentissage avec des couleurs apaisantes comme le bleu et le vert peuvent favoriser la concentration et réduire le stress, tandis que des couleurs plus vives comme le rouge peuvent stimuler l'énergie, mais aussi provoquer de l'anxiété. La diversité des pays francophones permet également d'apprendre différentes cultures, modes de vie et traditions, de la France au Québec, en passant par les pays d'Afrique de l'Ouest et les îles des Caraïbes. Dans un monde où la communication et les échanges internationaux sont essentiels, la langue française offre un pont vers un avenir plein de possibilités. Que ce soit pour des raisons culturelles, professionnelles ou personnelles, apprendre le français est un investissement précieux. C'est une langue de prestige, mais aussi de connexion entre les peuples, et elle continuera d'avoir un impact significatif dans les années à venir. Je souhaite exprimer, en mon nom et au nom des élèves, mes plus sincères remerciements à l'école pour l'introduction de la langue française au sein de notre programme. Cette initiative témoigne de votre volonté d'offrir à vos élèves des opportunités éducatives enrichissantes et internationales.

Célébrons le Spectre de la Vie

Dans les champs de lavande, violet en majesté,
Le souffle de Provence, doux et parfumé,
Sous un ciel azur, Paris s'éveille lentement,
La Seine murmure des contes d'antan.

Les toits rouges des villages du Midi,
Abritent des rires, des festins inouis,
Du jaune du soleil aux portes des maisons,
Chaque couleur porte une chanson.
Rouge comme le vin que l'on partage,
Blanc comme les robes des vieux mariages,
Bleu comme les rêves au fil de l'histoire,
La France danse dans son miroir.

Célébrons les nuances de notre passé,
Et les teintes qui façonnent notre destinée,
Car la vie, comme un arc-en-ciel mouvant,

À vous de peindre le monde, créer votre toile, Avec des rêves vastes, des couleurs sans voile.
Sculptez chaque moment, chaque éclat de vie, Des idées infinies, un univers choisi.

Tracez des lignes douces, ou des coups de pinceau, Laissez l'âme s'exprimer, vibrer sans un mot.

Les couleurs

Les couleurs jouent un rôle très important dans nos vies, que nous en soyons conscients ou non. Elles ont la capacité d'influencer nos émotions et nos humeurs d'une manière que peu d'autres choses peuvent faire. La couleur influence des perceptions qui ne sont pas évidentes, comme le goût des aliments. Par exemple, les pilules rouges ou oranges sont généralement utilisées comme stimulants. La couleur peut en effet influencer une personne ; cependant, il est important de se rappeler que ces effets diffèrent selon les personnes. Les couleurs sont des longueurs d'onde spécifiques de l'énergie électromagnétique perçue par nos yeux. La couleur que nous voyons est la partie du spectre visible qui est réfléchiée par un objet donné.

Samriddhi Mishra (VII C)

"Celebrate life's spectrum"

Nous devrions célébrer le spectre de la vie comme il est coloré.

Notre vie est très colorée et nous devrions en être vraiment reconnaissants.

Nous pouvons associer les couleurs de la vie à de nombreuses choses de la France, comme l'or qui représente la richesse de la France tandis que le blanc signifie la pureté, la paix et le calme.

Alors que le bleu représente l'une des devises de la France qui est la liberté, ce qui signifie la liberté des droits. La couleur verte est désignée comme le paysage verdoyant et apaisant de la France.

De même, le jaune représente le bonheur et la joie du peuple français.

Le rouge est désigné comme l'audace et le patriotisme du peuple français pour son pays.

Toutes les couleurs ensemble symbolisent la diversité culturelle (biélorusse) et les différents modes de vie.

Nous devrions célébrer les différentes couleurs de la vie avec beaucoup de joie et d'efforts.

Les couleurs apportent de la joie

Il était une fois dans un village beaucoup de gens qui étaient habitués à utiliser du noir, donc toutes les maisons étaient noires. Chaque matin, ils se réveillent et voient les murs noirs qui les rendent tristes. Ils travaillaient de manière plus légère, toujours faible, pas souriante. Chaque jour devenait triste pour eux, jusqu'à ce qu'un peintre arrive de la ville pour explorer le triste village. Il a vu que la raison pour laquelle tout le monde était triste tous les jours était à cause de la couleur noire et il a dit aux villageois que les couleurs peuvent vous apporter toute la joie et les villageois ne l'ont pas cru. Il voulait le prouver alors il a coloré tout le village avec des couleurs vibrantes et joyeuses. Quand les villageois l'ont vu au début, ils étaient fous et lui ont rapidement demandé de le colorer en noir. parce que c'est comme ça qu'ils vivaient depuis le début, mais le peintre a dit de conclure un accord selon lequel si les villageois ne se sentent pas énergiques ou heureux quand ils se réveillent et voient les couleurs, alors lui seul changera les couleurs en noir. Ils ont tous accepté en pensant qu'un peintre urbain ne peut pas changer ce qui se passe depuis des années, alors laissez-le essayer et il partira tout seul. Le peintre savait et était cohérent dans sa volonté de changer la mentalité des gens car ils ne croyaient pas que les couleurs puissent apporter de la joie. Le lendemain matin, tout le monde s'est réveillé. Maintenant, la question était de savoir s'ils étaient heureux, s'ils étaient énergiques ? Oui, ils l'étaient ! ils ont travaillé le double, voire parfois le triple, de ce qu'ils faisaient avant et ils ont vite compris que LES COULEURS APPORTENT LA JOIE !

Couleurs de la vie !

Un enfant naît en rose, un paquet de fourrure blanche au fond d'un clin d'œil joue avec tous les verts du parc ce qui leur apporte toujours beaucoup d'étincelles.

Quand un enfant voit quelque chose de rouge, je ne sais pas pourquoi il se sent si heureux ?

Le bleu est à la mode, la passion de tous

L'été s'installe en jaune, faisant suivre tous les regards

La violette vient avec un scintillement Oh nuages ! laissez les gouttes de pluie arroser

Le blanc est si pur et calme, c'est si agréable dans ma paume ouverte.

Les couleurs de la vie apportent des souvenirs à tous, chérissons-les et rendons-les grands.

Éclats de Diversité : La Tapisserie Vivante de la Culture Française"

"Célébrer le spectre de la vie" met en lumière la richesse de la langue et de la culture françaises, où diversité et unité se conjuguent harmonieusement. Parlée dans le monde entier, le français relie les gens tout en préservant des traditions, arts et expressions uniques. De la cuisine à la mode, en passant par la littérature et la philosophie, la culture française offre une grande variété d'expériences. Des événements comme la Fête nationale, le Festival de Cannes et la Fête de la Musique illustrent cette diversité culturelle, nous invitant à embrasser les différences et savourer les moments colorés de la vie grâce à la joie de vivre française.

La Couleur apporte la Joie

Dans le jardin, les fleurs éclatent,
Rouge to jaune, la vie s'enflamme,
L'azur du ciel, un doux refrain,
Les Couleurs dansent, chassent le chagrin.

Les rires vibrant, éclats de lumière,
Chaque teinte chante, éveille la terre, Ensemble, elles tissent un doux rêve, La couleur, la joie, en nous s'élève.

Aaradhya Gulati (X A)

Il était une fois un peintre qui maîtrisait son art. Cependant, il se laissait facilement influencer par les opinions des autres et leur permettait de peindre sa toile. Comment les peintures sur la toile pouvaient-elles être belles alors qu'elles étaient colorées par d'autres ? En réalité, le peintre n'est autre que vous-même et la toile est votre vie, qui raconte une histoire. Il existe des possibilités infinies selon lesquelles vous pouvez terminer votre histoire et colorer votre toile. Différentes émotions et souvenirs affectent la couleur de votre pinceau, qui finira par peindre votre histoire. C'est à vous de choisir si votre histoire contiendra des nuages gris foncés de désespoir ou de brillants rayons d'espoir. Dans ce monde magnifique, on a de nombreuses occasions de célébrer le spectre de la vie et d'éprouver toutes les nuances d'émotions. Avec les nuances que vous acquérez avec l'expérience, vous pourrez colorer votre toile et raconter votre histoire.
