Honouring the Past, Embracing the Future:

25 Years
of Educational Brilliance

As May descends upon Delhi with its golden blaze and balmy embrace, it brings with it not only the searing intensity of summer but also a symphony of culmination and celebration. It is a time when the earth, sun-kissed and vibrant, mirrors the spirited fervour within our school walls — a month that dances with purpose, reflection and anticipation. In the heart of this luminous month, N.K. Bagrodia Public School stood resplendent as it hosted the much-awaited TRISHNA SUMMIT: A Students' Conclave — an intellectual odyssey, a confluence of curious minds and eloquent voices. This prestigious inter-school competition unfolded like a vibrant mosaic, igniting sparks of creativity, critical thinking and oratory brilliance among children. With each round, participants unfurled the silken threads of imagination and insight, transforming the school into a crucible of innovation and expression. May also bore witness to the quiet, resolute flame of commitment rekindled through the Inservice Training Programme for Teachers — a of continuous learning and pedagogical refinement. Here, our educators, the guiding stars of our institution, immersed themselves in thought-provoking sessions, emerging renewed and empowered to shape the future with enhanced vision and vitality. As the month ripened under the fierce Delhi sun, the school gradually exhaled into the soft rhythm of summer vacations — a cherished interlude wrapped in stillness and serenity. Though the temperatures soared, the hearts of young learners soared higher, buoyed by dreams, memories and the sweet promise of leisure. This pause, though silent, sings a soulful tune — of time well-earned, stories waiting to be read and imaginations ready to wander into untamed realms. Indeed, May is a chapter painted in bold strokes of brilliance, resilience and renewal. In its embrace, we find both the fire of aspiration and the balm of retreat — a dual blessing that urges us to rise, reflect and rejuvenate for the seasons yet to come.
