

Report on Annual Sports Meet 2025

Crescendo – A Spectacle of Sporty Trailblazers

On 6th December 2025, N. K. Bagrodia Public School, Dwarka, resonated with exuberance, athletic vigour, and youthful dynamism as it celebrated its Annual Sports Meet, Crescendo – A Spectacle of Sporty Trailblazers, marking a proud moment in the school's Silver Jubilee year. The school grounds radiated festive energy as students unfurled their enthusiasm, discipline, and team spirit, turning the day into a memorable celebration of sportsmanship and holistic growth.

The distinguished Sports Meet was graced by an eminent panel of dignitaries, whose august presence elevated the grandeur of the occasion. Among those present were Shri K. K. Dhanuka, revered Founder Trustee; Shri Dinesh Kumar Gupta, dedicated Trustee; Dr (Mrs) Rajee N. Kumar, Director; Mrs Jaishree Nawani, Principal, N. K. Bagrodia Global School; Mrs Satinder Kaur Singh, Academic coordinator; Ms Anjali Kharbanda, Principal, N. K. Bagrodia Public School; and Mrs Richa Goel, Primary Incharge, along with proud parents and esteemed invitees. Their presence infused the event with honour, warmth, and inspiration.

The day began with Sprintopia (Track Events I) – Champions on the Track, as students of foundational level took to the field with spirited zeal. Their wholehearted participation, poised confidence, and sterling sportsmanship set an inspiring tone for the events that followed. The programme formally opened with a solemn prayer and the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, invoking divine blessings for a day devoted to strength, discipline, and spirited endeavour. This was followed by Floral Welcome of the distinguished dignitaries, extending gratitude and reverence for their continued guidance and support.

The atmosphere was soon enriched by the graceful performance मङ्गलारम्भः – Welcome Dance, which infused the gathering with vibrancy and cultural splendour. In her opening address, Ms Anjali Kharbanda, Principal of the school, set the tone for the day. With eloquence and conviction, she underscored the significance of sports in nurturing resilience, leadership, and character, while highlighting the school's achievements and unwavering commitment to holistic development.

The cultural segment opened with योगतरंगिनी – The Confluence of Body and Soul, an impeccably synchronised yoga presentation. The display embodied balance, focus, and harmony, showcasing the students' discipline and refined coordination. This was followed by a spirited performance titled Swift Fist – Power Punches and Happy Kicks, showcased by the Pre-Primary and Primary students, which highlighted an impressive repertoire of taekwondo movements, demonstrating agility, focus, and disciplined synchrony. Their powerful movements added an energetic pulse to the programme.

A moment of pride unfolded during the Prize Distribution Ceremony, where state-level achievers were felicitated for their distinguished accomplishments. Their medals and trophies stood as shining symbols of perseverance, excellence, and relentless effort.

The sporting arena then came alive with Sprintopia (Track Events II) – Champions on the Track, an exhilarating sequence of track events where participants displayed speed, determination, and grace. Enthusiastic cheers from the audience echoed across the field as young athletes sprinted with zeal, embodying the spirit of true sportsmanship.

The cultural revelry continued with Cadencia – A Harmonious Celebration of Rhythm and Grace, a mesmerising dance presentation that blended expressive artistry with rhythmic elegance. The synchrony and dedication of the performers enthralled the gathering. The final presentation, Prismatica – Radiating Colours of Efforts and Talent, illuminated the stage with vibrant hues, creativity, and youthful exuberance, offering a delightful display of talent and teamwork. The varied performances beautifully reflected the school's commitment to nurturing not only academic proficiency but also a holistic and dynamic learning atmosphere for every student.

Following the performances, Dr (Mrs) Rajee N. Kumar, Director of the school, addressed the audience with her inspiring Words of Wisdom. She applauded the relentless efforts of students and faculty, emphasising the value of perseverance, discipline, and resilience in shaping confident, future-ready individuals.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Ms Richa Goel, Primary Incharge, expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, staff members, parents, and participants. The event drew to a dignified close with the National Anthem, evoking a profound sense of pride and patriotism.

Crescendo – Annual Sports Meet 2025 brilliantly echoed the school's vision of empowering young minds through comprehensive growth, instilling values of perseverance, and inspiring students to excel in every sphere while embracing the true spirit of sportsmanship. The enthusiasm, discipline, and collaborative spirit displayed throughout the event made it a magnificent and memorable celebration of young learners' endeavour and dedication.
