Late Sh. N.K. Bagrodia Ji

“25 Years of Educational Excellence : The Journey of N.K Bagrodia Public School, Dwarka”

Shri Nand Kishore Bagrodia ji, the esteemed founder of N. K. Bagrodia Public School, was a visionary leader dedicated to societal welfare. A great utopian and an entrepreneur par excellence with a clear objective, began his journey from Mukundgarh Town in Rajasthan. He believed that at least one member of every family in India, especially women, should be educated so that the entire family can be benefitted. Keeping this in mind, he established two primary schools in Mukundgarh and laid the foundation for an Industrial Training Institute (ITI). He also founded the organization ‘Aashray’, which he later entrusted to the Rajiv Gandhi Cancer Institute. In Delhi, he founded several institutions and set the cornerstone for N.K.Bagrodia Public School in Dwarka on 28th July 1999, which has since become paragon of educational excellence.

N.K.Bagrodia Public School’s progress has been exceptional, with significant milestones marking its growth in preparing the leaders of tomorrow. The school’s first batch of class X graduated in 2007 followed by class XII batch in 2009. Under the competent leadership of the current Chairman, Mr. Raghav Bagrodia, the school takes pride in providing quality education to over 3,000 students, reflecting its growing influence and steadfast commitment to academic excellence, extracurricular achievement and community engagement. The school’s commitment to shaping multifaceted denizens, deeply rooted in cultural heritage, ensures that the vision set forth in 2001 continues to thrive, leaving an enduring legacy for the future generations.
